

Robert M. Noonan

Assistant Commissioner
Office of the Integrated Award Environment
U.S. General Services Administration

Robert M. Noonan serves as the assistant commissioner for the Office of Systems Management (OSM) within GSA's Federal Acquisition Service. The OSM program management office includes both the Integrated Award Environment (IAE) and the Common Acquisition Platform (CAP).

As OSM assistant commissioner, Noonan provides management and oversight for a program that is responsible for integrating and unifying the federal award process for United States Government buyers and sellers, and enabling shared acquisition services with goals to reduce costs and generate customer savings.

Before joining GSA, Noonan served as the deputy assistant secretary (DAS) for administration, at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). There he streamlined and improved the delivery of administrative services in support of the Administration for Children and Families' core mission areas.

During his 14 years at HHS, he held various positions including serving as the DAS for the HHS Office of Business Management and Transformation and as the acting director of the HHS Office of Grants Management. He also served as the director of the Program Support Center within the, Administrative Operations Service.

Prior to joining DHHS, Mr. Noonan served in the United States Navy in both the Atlantic and Pacific Fleets. He graduated with distinction from the U.S. Naval War College and received a Masters in Health Services Administration from The George Washington University.
